

Make and Illustrate A Book

What is the course about?

This will be a 12 week course which will offer you an opportunity to draw your own illustrations to a piece of text either provided by the tutor (or better still your own story or poems).

What will I learn?

You will learn how to illustrate the text in an effective and creative way. Combine your ideas and illustrations with the text into a booklet (though the process of scanning on the computer).

Entry Requirements

None

What will I need to bring with me?

It would be good to bring a story or poems that you have produced and inspire or interest you.

How will I learn?

You will learn through practical exercises and demonstration and one to one support from your tutor.

How will my learning be assessed?

Your learning will be assessed through ongoing one to one support, feedback, self assessment, observation by the tutor and of course your final piece of work

What qualifications will I get?

This is not an accredited course.

Are there any extra costs?

No.
